

March 10, 2010

Dear Parents/Guardians,

March is proving to be a busy month. Parent-Teacher Conferences are coming on the 18th. Please plan on attending the conference with your student. For fun and entertainment, the Love Your Library Storytelling Festival on the 26th should prove to be a real treat. Come and watch our students perform!

Report cards will go out on Wednesday, March 17th.

Thank you for getting out the word that we are expanding. Our grade levels are filling up very quickly, but we still have openings. Anyone who is interested should visit our school to make an informed choice. No appointment is necessary.

Thank you to parents who have been donating their time for our school. To date we have a login of over 2091 hours. Please make sure you record your volunteer hours!
